Katie is a board-certified primary care nurse practitioner from Wrightstown, WI. With over 21 years of healthcare experience, she has primarily worked in nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and home health care settings. Katie holds a specialty in wound care and was nationally certified in 2021, having received training in sharps debridement.

Katie has a deep passion for working with the elderly population. She is committed to providing high-quality care based on the most recent evidence-based practice guidelines. Managing multiple chronic conditions can be complex for both patients and their families. Katie develops personalized care plans that prioritize patient well-being and aim to enhance their quality of life.

Outside of her professional responsibilities, Katie enjoys spending time with her two children and immediate family. She is an avid boater and enjoys traveling to the Caribbean.
